Application to determine if prior approval is required for a proposed steel frame agricultural building.

98/22 Item for information

A Member had asked that office accommodation/purchase of a community building be opened up for further discussion. At the June meeting Council resolved not to discuss office accommodation again until after the May 2023 Parish Elections and therefore further discussion can only take place to reverse this after a period of 6 months has elapsed as per standing orders unless supported by 5 Councillors.

Members will be invited to view a property in December by the Member concerned and appropriate action taken if necessary. This could be in the form of an extraordinary meeting in December or discussion at the January meeting.
